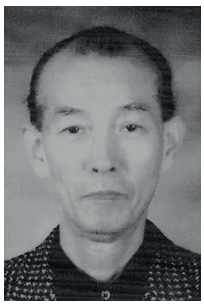
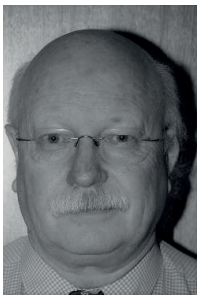
OBITUARY



← Mr Kahn Yoon Hong of Korea passed away on 7 June 2019 at the age of 91. Mr Kahn was elected as the FIAP Executive Committee Member at the 3rd FIAP Congress in 1979. Thereafter he acted as Secretary General from 1984 to 1989 and was nominated as FIAP Honorary Member in 1996 at the 11th FIAP Congress. Mr Kahn was the pioneer of the Korean Philately, he was the one who made the first exhibition in Korea successfully materialised in 1984. He was invited to sign the Roll of Distinguished Philatelist (RDP) in Bristol, United Kingdom, being the first one from Korea. His demise is a great loss to the Philatelic Federation of Korea, FIAP and FIP. May his soul rest in peace.



← Mr Sakserm Siriwong of Thailand passed away on 18 June 2019 at the age of 67. Mr Siriwong was a knowledgeable philatelist in Asia. The Philatelic Association of Thailand had lost a great philatelist. May his soul rest in peace.

↑ Mr Gary Brown of Australia passed away unexpectedly on 14 September 2019 at the age of 69. Mr Brown's contribution to organised philately at Australian and International level has been extraordinary. He was the driving force behind many exhibitions including the Australia 2013 (FIP), Melbourne 2017 (FIAP) and the planned Melbourne 2021 (FIAP). He was also the FIAP Consultant for NZ 2020 to be held in Auckland next year. He was elected as FIAP Exco Member in 2009 and nominated as FIAP Honorary Member in 2017, and the current Chairman of the FIP Philatelic Literature Commission (2016-2020). An accredited jury of FIAP and FIP, he was a past president of the Royal Philatelic Society of Victoria and served on the Australian Philatelic Federation for nearly 2 decades. May his soul rest in peace.

CHINA 2019 WORLD STAMP EXHIBITION

Gu Zewei

China 2019 World Stamp Exhibition was held on June 11-17, 2019 at the International Expo Center in Wuhan, Hubei Province, China. It is the third time that China held the world exhibition after 1999 and 2009 for the purpose to celebrate the 70th anniversary of the founding of the People's Republic of China, to promote the exchange of Chinese and foreign philatelic culture, enhance the friendly exchanges and cooperation between China and the rest of the world and further develop postal and philatelic services.

This exhibition was highly regarded by both domestic and foreign philatelists. A total of 1,239 exhibits, 4,873 frames from 85 countries and regions joined in the exhibition, with nearly 400,000 visitors and 66 international juries are enrolled in the appreciation work.

156 exhibits received gold or above medal. The Grand Prix National goes to The 1897 Red Revenue Surcharges of China by Ding Jinsong from China. The Grand Prix International goes to Australia: Private Printing Period in Victoria by Masayasu Nagai from Japan. The Grand Prix D'Honneur goes to The Postal History of Mongolia (1755-1921) by Wei Gang from China.

The non-competitive exhibits attracted the visitors by its highlights. 4,510 pieces of stamps from 1,358 sets issued by China Post since the founding of the People's Republic of China have been displayed for the first time. Meanwhile, 18 frames of Chinese Treasures and 29 frames of FIP Grand Prix Club displayed as well as the 34 frames of the UPU's 22 member organizations.

Nearly 500 domestic and international media, new media platforms and industry websites have conducted comprehensive and multi-angle tracking reports on this exhibition, covering Asia-Pacific, America, Europe and other regions, with more than 300 million hits. The "China Screen" of the New York Times Square for the first time displayed the promotion video. A navigation system of QR code was introduced for the first time to assist Chinese fans to read the introductory page. The live show, favored by young people was used to simultaneously broadcast the opening and closing ceremony to the world via Tencent platform.

Finally, we would like to pay tribute to the commissioners, jury and staff who work diligently for this exhibition. Without your passion and dedication, there will not be a wonderful exhibition!

Hong Kong Stampex 2019

Stephen Chan

Hong Kong Stampex 2019 was held on 1-3 March at the Exhibition Hall of Sheungwan Civic Centre. It was a truly international event this year. In addition to local entries and those from Australia under the exchange programme between Hong Kong Philatelic Society and Australian Philatelic Federation, there were also participants from Macau, Singapore and Thailand who wanted to qualify their exhibits for upcoming international exhibitions.

The opening of the show was officiated by Mr Y C Lam, General Manager of Hong Kong Post, Mr Alan Grey, Australian Commissioner cum Accord Judge and our Chairman Malcolm Hammersley.

At the Opening Ceremony

A total of 126 frames and one literature entry were shown, including 4 frames of Court of Honour display provided by Hong Kong Post. The jury team consisted of Malcolm Hammersley as the Chairman, Daniel Szeto as the Secretary, Li Hong and Alan Grey. Judging was done according to FIP benchmarks. To reflect the "national" standard of the exhibition, 5 points were added to reach the final medal level. The standard of the exhibits was high resulting in 7 Gold and 12 Large Vermeil medals being awarded.

As usual the three day show attracted a large number of collectors who came to enjoy the exhibits and to hunt for treasures brought in by dealers from different parts of the world. The Executive Committee meeting of FIAP was held concurrently in Hong Kong and we were happy to welcome the participants to the exhibition and the Palmares dinner held at Beijing House Restaurant on 2 March. One of the highlights of the evening was the presentation of souvenirs to our Honorary Members Messrs. Lee King Yue, Choi Cheong Too, Francis Au and Tony Kwan in recognition of their contribution to Hong Kong philately over the years. All present enjoyed the food, wine and most importantly, the friendship of the event which came to an end with Mr Tay's Auld Lang Syne.

FOUR NATION STAMP EXHIBITION (4NSE) 2019

Ngoh See Jam

The FOUR NATION STAMP EXHIBITION (4NSE) 2019, KUALA LUMPUR, MALAYSIA was held between 29 - 31 March, 2019 at Dewan Sri Pos, Level 3, Pos Malaysia Head Quarters, Dayabumi Complex, Kuala Lumpur.

This exhibition was hosted by Philatelic Society Malaysia with the support of Pos Malaysia Berhad and Malaysian Communications and Multimedia Commission (MCMC).

The exhibition was officially declared opened at 10.00 am on 29 March 2019 by the Presidents of the philatelic associations / societies of the participating countries (Malaysia, Indonesia, Singapore and Thailand) and the Head of Marketing, Pos Malaysia Berhad in a very simple but meaningful ceremony in front of invited guests including teachers and school children.

To commemorate the 4NSE 2019, Pos Malaysia issued a RM3.00 miniature sheet and Philatelic Society Malaysia was given the privilege to design and sell a special souvenir cover for the three days event.

A total of 70 exhibits with 265 frames from the 4 participating countries (Indonesia, Malaysia, Thailand and Singapore); invited exhibits from Negara Brunei Darussalam as well as exhibits from Malaysian schools were displayed.

Judging of exhibits were completed by the evening of 29 March 2019. The standard of exhibits was high with 3 Large Gold and 13 Gold medals being awarded. The judging was based on F.I.P. standards. Three points were added except for the Youth Class.

Daily programmes, including philatelic talks by the Chairman of the Organizing Committee & other guest speakers were well attended by the ever enthusiastic school children, teachers, parents as well as visitors to the exhibition.

Guided philatelic tours to the exhibits at the exhibition hall were organized from time to time during the exhibition by philatelists and exhibitors for the visitors.

As the venue was right in the heart of Kuala Lumpur city centre, many stamp collectors, visitors and tourists also made their way to the exhibition hall to view the exhibits on display.

The Philatelic Society Malaysia's tables and stamp dealers booths were located at Level 2 (1 level below the Exhibition hall), adjoining to the Philatelic Bureau. Stamp collectors had a busy time hunting for philatelic materials to improve their collections from dealers' booths.

The special miniature sheet issued by Pos Malaysia to commemorate the 4NSE 2019 and sales of the special souvenir cover by Philatelic Society Malaysia which were only available at the Exhibition for the three days event. These generated considerable interest and long queues each morning of people waiting to buy the products.
